

HIGHWAY 13 – CLASS ACTION NOTICE

Were you immobilized on Highway 13 South or Highway 520 East, in Montréal, on the night of March 14 to 15, 2017?

CLAIM YOUR MONEY!

The Court has approved the settlement agreement between the Attorney General of Québec and the Plaintiff in the class action filed under number 500-06-000853-172.

This agreement does not end the class action as no agreement has been reached with the City of Montréal.

Who is eligible to claim money? Anyone who was immobilized in a vehicle on Highway 13 South or Highway 520 East, in Montréal, between 7:00 p.m. on March 14, 2017 and 12:00 pm (noon) on March 15, 2017.

How? Complete the form on the Administrator's website at <https://reglementautoroute13.ca> before November 4, 2019.

How much? You could receive between $350 and $1,375 depending on the number of hours you were immobilized in a vehicle, your age and your state of health. Deductions will apply on this amount for lawyers' fees (20% plus taxes) and for expenses owed to the Class Action Assistance Fund under the Act. To view the full compensation table, go to: <https://reglementautoroute13.ca>.
